MANHOOD

IN THE

YOUNG AND RISING GENERATION.

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show their baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwardly upon themselves.

If the patient be a female the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety as the first symptom in which nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on. The energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain; the parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for fear of themselves; no repose of manner, no earnestness, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to another.

THESE SYMPTOMS, IF ALLOWED TO GO ON WHICH THIS MEDICINE INVARIABLY REMOVES—SOON FOLLOW LOSS OF POWER, FATUITY AND EPILEPTIC FITS, IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this same result occurred to two patients. Reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases, Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute, neither mirth nor grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur it is rarely articulate.

"With woful measures wan despair

Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

While we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the

HARDY'S

In offering to the public at this time, HARDY'S GENUINE JAUNDICE BITTERS as a remedy for all Billious complaints, so prevalent everywhere in the vernal season of the year, I do not present any new and untried article puffed up by persons who perhaps are not known to any one, but an old and tried article that has proved itself equal, if not superior, to any remedy of the kind, ever put into the market.

GENUINE

While I do not pretend to say they will cure all diseases human flesh is heir to, I do say they have been used for the last half century, and thoroughly tested by millions, and by those, too, of almost every nation on the globe, and in every variety of climate, and have proved themselves, beyond all question, unequaled by any medicine for all BILIOUS and JAUNDICE COMPLAINTS which are so common everywhere, and to prevent contracting infectious diseases peculiar to various climates.

JAUNDICE

These Bitters are not unpleasant to the taste; they are a moderate cathartic, cleanse the Stomach and Bowels of Phlegm and vitiated Bile, strongly invigorate the coats of the Stomach, promote digestion, and restore the loss of appetite.

They are invaluable for travelers, seafaring persons, and those exposed to sudden changes of weather in warm climates; to the dyspeptic, and persons of sedentary habits. To such, they afford the most speedy relief when taken according to directions.

BITTERS.

Put up in Papers at 25 cents per package, and in large Bottles at 75 cents each.

DOES OUR SWEDISH IMMIGRATION PAY.

In 1870 the State appropriated $4500 to try the experiment of Swedish Immigration. In 1871 $12,000 were appropriated in furtherance of the same object, and certain sums paid out by the Land Agent for felling trees, &c., were reimbursed to him. The present legislature is now asked for a further sum in aid of this enterprise, and the plain question which members of the legislature and the citizens of the State should ask themselves is, "Does Swedish immigration pay?"

What has been accomplished thus far?" Briefly this.

One thousand Swedes, bringing with them $40,000 cash, have paid their own way to our State and are settled among us. Eighty houses and twenty-five miles of road have been built; twenty thousand acres of land settled; two thousand acres of trees fell'd; five thousand bushels of potatoes and three thousand bushels of grain harvested.

Does this pay for the outlay?

As a matter of business, as a matter of mere dollars and cents, we believe it does.

First, it pays in cash. The Swedes have brought $40,000 in hard money with them into Maine. This money was earned, produced outside our State; is so much direct addition to our capital; and largely exceeds the entire sum expended by Maine in aid of this movement.

Second, it pays in the enhanced value it has given to real estate in Aroostook County. Six farms adjoining New Sweden, that had been abandoned by Americans, have been sold to the Swedes for good prices. Several large farms in the vicinity have been sold to the Swedes for prices ranging from $1000 to $2000; and much of the land in the neighborhood of the Swedish settlement has doubled in value since the arrival of the first colonists eighteen months ago.

Third it pays as an advertisement of Maine. Flattering notices of the Swedish Colony, and of the vigor displayed by our State in attracting and founding it, have frequently appeared in the principal newspapers of the United States, Canada and Sweden. Maine to-day is exciting interest, no longer as a good place to emigrate from, but as a good State to immigrate to. Our soil, forests, water-power and quarries are challenging attention everywhere. Capital and labor are moving into Maine. Our own young men are remaining at home. "Cause immigration to flow into a State and you stop emigration flowing out of it" is a truism which is being proved anew amongst us.

The "Report of the Land Agent of Maine for 1871," just published, contains the following significant statistics:

Year.	Lands contracted to actual Settlers, other than Swedes.	Lands contracted to Swedish Immigrants.
1868	11 167 32
1869	11 189 27
1870	10 811 75	3,400 00
1871	33,472 60	10,100 00

From this we see that the immigration of Americans to our unsettled domain was three times as large in 1871 as in any previous year; while if we add the Swedish immigration to our town, we find that the amount of wild lands of Maine settled in 1871 is nearly four times as great as in any year before.—The three-fold American immigration of 1871 is the direct result of the free advertisement of our public lands given them by the Swedish enterprise.

Fourth. It pays in actual labor received on State roads. A very large portion of the appropriations are expended in supplying the colonists with seeds, tools and provisions, which are absolutely necessary till they get their first crop. These supplies are not given away, but sold to the colonists at fair prices and payment taken in labor at the rate of $1 a day on State highways. These highways open up our forest domain, induce immigrants, Americans, as well as Swedes, to become settlers, and these settlers turn an unproductive wilderness into a tax-paying area. The increased taxes which in a few years will flow back into our Treasury, will compensate us for our present outlay, many times over.

Fifth. It pays in the acquisition of the immigrants themselves. One thousand new citizens have been added to the productive energies of Maine. One half of these, or five hundred, are men. According to the estimates of our best economists, these are worth $1000 each, or in the aggregate $500,000 to the State. And all this is but the seed of the future.—When our colony at New Sweden is once firmly rooted in the soil of Maine, it will continually attract immigrants from Sweden without further expense to the State. At the next census, in 1880, we expect to see 10,000 Swedes among the population of Maine, worth to the State $5,000,000.

The West spends hundreds of thousands every year to encourage immigration. Our Recent dispatches state that the sum of $80,000 is included in the Ontario budget of this year for the same purpose. Maine has quietly prosecuted her own immigration enterprise with a success unhoped for at home, and unlooked for abroad. Most assuredly it pays. But it will not pay to take any backward step now.—[Portland Advertiser.

The Ministerial Association of the Gardiner District of the Maine Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church was in session at Lewiston last week. The Association organized by the election of officers as follows: Rev. George Webber, D. D., President; Rev. C. J. Clark, Secretary; Rev. K. Atkinson and A. Hatch, Committee on exercises.

One thousand, three hundred and seventy-five cases of boots and shoes were shipped from Auburn last week, the most ever sent in one week. The shoe business of Auburn for the month of February foots up higher than for any preceding month in the city's shoe history. The aggregate shipments for the month have been 5,145 cases. The prospect now is that the weekly shipments will touch 1500 cases before the spring's business is over.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL

English papers announce the death of Henry F. Chorley, a well-known musical celebrity of London.

Hon. Schuyler Cruppen, ex-Judge of the Superior Court, died Friday night, aged 77 years.

The Pioneer Grant Club, the oldest club in the Union, has been reorganized in New Orleans with 190 members.

It is said that the Illinois Democratic Congressmen declare themselves unanimously in favor of Judge Davis for the Presidency.

Hon. James D. Robinson has been nominated by the Republicans of Bath for re-election to the office of Mayor.

Ex-Senator Buckalew is a prominent candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor in Pennsylvania.

Nelson Walker, a colored lawyer, was admitted to practice before the Supreme Court at Nashville, Tenn., on Friday.

Gen. Ladmirault threatens to resign the office of Governor of Paris, because the "Rappel," newspaper is permitted to re-appear.

Mr. Gibbons, Lord Mayor of London, has been made a Baronet and, the honor of Knighthood conferred upon Sheriffs Bennett and Trescott of that city.

The labors of the convention to frame a State Constitution for Utah closed Saturday. The convention is regarded as a farce by the Gentiles.

The Wisconsin Assembly tabled by a vote of 29 to 38, resolutions endorsing Sumner's one-term amendment to the federal constitution.

The Wisconsin Legislature proposes to amend the State Constitution by increasing the number of Supreme Court Judges from 3 to 5.

Harvey H. Byrne, late District Attorney of San Francisco, and many years a prominent lawyer in California, died on Friday. He was the first husband of Matilda Heron, the actress.

Prince de Joinville has been reinstated in rank as Admiral in the French Navy, and Duke D'Aumale in his military rank as General. The committee of the Assembly have reported in favor of restoring the property to the Orleans Princes.

Even the New York Tribune is compelled to say, speaking of the New Hampshire canvass, "Any chance that disaffection might have had for the Democracy has been destroyed by the baleful presence of a few speakers of the real old Copperhead kind."

Pomeroy's Democrat will have none of the "new departure," and "passiveism" is its particular abhorrence. It continues in the same old strain, eulogizing the slaveholders' rebellion and its leaders, recently proclaiming that Lee and Davis "never fought for anything but the purest liberty and the purest republic.

The "Cross Roads" Democracy in Kentucky must be on the decline. The Louisville Ledger, a paper established to oppose the "new departure" of Vallandigham, has given up the ghost, whereat Nasby, Deacon Pogram and others of like faith, refuse to be comforted.

Col. S. M. Johnson, who during Buchanan's Administration was a writer of editorials for the Washington Union, and who afterwards wrote for the Intelligencer, died suddenly Friday of heart disease. He was a lawyer by profession, and was at one time a member of the board for codifying the statutes.

The Executive Committee of the National Board of Trade is in Washington urging the adoption of the matters indorsed at the St. Louis Convention, and especially urging the establishment of a Department of Commerce with a Cabinet officer at its head.

The New Hampshire Political Manual, in classifying the votes for Governor, last year, alludes to the Labor Reformers, as "Assistant Democrats." There are just such men now, at Washington, and this is the best name that can be applied to them.

It is said that Gov. Gratz Brown of Missouri has the Presidency fever in a virulent form, and that he is actively at work to secure the first place on the ticket to be nominated at the Cincinnati Convention. He thinks the fight will be between himself and Trumbull, and he is not satisfied to be beaten by so recent a convert to the new faith.

No better evidence is needed to support the assertion that the Democratic party of to-day is one of mere negations than is afforded in the leading organs of that party in New York. The World, for instance, has strenuously advocated minority, representation, but no sooner is the principle incorporated in the new charter of that city, than the World shifts about and denounces it as a scheme to promote "venal voting."

An analysis of the list of delegates present at the Missouri Republican State Convention on 22nd instant week shows that more than one-half of them acted with the Liberals in 1870, but they are no longer Liberals in the sense the word was then used, but are active, earnest Republicans, in entire harmony with the principles and purposes of the party, will not stop at no effort to kill passiveism and carry the State for the nominee of the Philadelphia Convention. So much for the Schurz-Brown defection.

A fierce contest is going on in New Brunswick in respect to the free school system instituted by the last Legislature. The law has been put into operation and has stirred up the bitterest opposition of the Catholic priests and their adherents, who are laboring for the repeal of the "Godless School bill." The St. John Freeman, a Catholic organ, has stated that Professor Agassiz had on a public occasion denounced the free schools of Boston as having a demoralizing effect upon the young and furnishing recruits for houses of ill-fame. The Boston papers, in the absence of Professor Agassiz, positively refute any such statement, knowing that he is an ardent friend of free education. Persons who were present on the occasion alluded to say that the Professor made no comparison between public and private schools, and made no remark that could be construed as unfriendly to the school system of Boston. The New Brunswick conflict discloses the real enemies of popular education and the causes that produce their hostility.

The Death Rate in Europe is nearly double what it is in the United States, averaging yearly one out of every forty-three inhabitants, while in this country it is only one for every eighty-one. Of the leading countries of Europe France leads in its mortality, the average being one death to every thirty-two of the population, and England appears to be the most healthy, the deaths being one to every forty-six. The life tables for the United States show a much wider range, from Arkansas, where the annual deaths are one in every forty-nine, to Oregon, where death rate is only one to every two hundred and nine.—The Northwestern States average the most healthy, and the Gulf States the most sickly. Next to these latest ... the New England States, ... the death rate averages one in every ...

THE EFFICIENCY OF THE SIGNAL SERVICE. An item of $61,000 for the Signal Service met with opposition from Gen. Farnsworth, in the House on Friday, but Mr. Dawes came to the rescue, and Mr. Coughlan of California related an instance of the utility of "Old Probabilities" prognostications in his State. It was telegraphed that a storm was approaching, whereupon a citizen who owned stock pastured on the low lands sent word to have them driven to higher ground. This was done, and the next morning there was eight feet of water where the stock had been feeding, the observations having thus saved one citizen from a loss of $30,000. Mr. Dawes narrated an instance showing the commercial value of the signal service reports. There were one day in the harbor of Milwaukee twenty sloops and one steamer ready to sail. The captain of one of these sloops, who read the weather dispatch, was so impressed by it that he called the other captains together, and after consultation they decided not to sail. The steamer sailed and was wrecked in a terrible storm, but the sloops remained safely in port. Mr. Cox of New York and Mr. Sargent of California also bore such eloquent testimony to the value of the weather reports that the opposition was withdrawn and the appropriation made.

SPOKEN.

Feb 12, lat 51 N, lon 18 W, ship Charles H Marshall, Marshall, from Liverpool for New York.

To the Honorable, the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, next to be holden at Bangor, within and for the County of Penobscot, on the first Tuesday of April, next.

Respectfully represents Lizzie M. Prescott of Bangor, in the County of Penobscot, that she was married on the 4th day of September, A. D 1869, at Bangor, aforesaid, to Rufus I. Prescott then of said Bangor; that since their intermarriage she has in all respects done her duty as a wife, but that said Prescott in the first place fraudulently deceived her into the marriage, that he lived with her only fifteen months, that during that time he was guilty of extreme cruelty toward her, that he provided no means for her support, and that he then abandoned her entirely, and has never lived with her, provided for her support, or even seen her since, but has left this State and is now in parts unknown.

Wherefore she prays that a divorce may be granted from the bonds of matrimony between her and her said husband.

LIZZIE M. PRESCOTT.

Bangor, Feb. 29, 1872.

STATE OF MAINE.

PENOBSCOT ss. In vacation of Supreme Judicial Court.

LIZZIE M. PRESCOTT vs. RUFUS I. PRESCOTT.

On the foregoing libel, ordered,—That said libelant give notice to said libelee, of the pendency thereof, by publishing an attested copy of said libel and this order of Court thereon, three weeks successively in the Bangor Daily Whig & Courier, a paper published in Bangor in said county, the last publication to be fifteen days at least before the first Tuesday of April next; that he may then appear, in our said Court, to be holden at Bangor ... for said county and show cause, if any he have, why the prayer of said libelant should not be granted.

Attest. E. C. BRETT, Clerk.

A true copy of libel and order of Court thereon.

WALDO ss.—Supreme Judicial Court, January Term, 1872.

AMOS GROUT vs. CARLETON S. BRAGG, Jr.

And now on suggestion to the Court that the Defendant, at the time of service of the writ, was not an inhabitant of this State, and had no tenant, agent or attorney within the same, that his goods or estate have been attached in this action, that he has had no notice of said suit and attachment, it is ORDERED, that notice of the pendency of this suit be given to the said Defendant, by publishing an attested copy of this Order, together with an abstract of the Plaintiff writ, three weeks successively in the Bangor Daily Whig & Courier, a newspaper printed at Bangor, in the County of Penobscot, the last publication to be not less than thirty days before the next term of this Court, to be holden at Belfast, within and for the County of Waldo, on the third Tuesday of April, 1872, that said Defendant may then and there appear and answer to said suit, if he shall see cause.

Attest:—W. G. FRYE, Clerk.

MANHOOD
YOUNG AND RISING GENERATION.

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort show their baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwardly upon themselves.

If the patient be a female the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety as the first symptom in which nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on. The energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain. The parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

[illegible] the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than solitude, and nothing they more dread, for fear of themselves; no repose of manner, no earnestness, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to another.

THESE SYMPTOMS, IF ALLOWED TO GO ON WHICH THIS MEDICINE INVARIABLY REMOVES SOON FOLLOW LOSS OF POWER, FATUITY AND EPILEPTIC FITS, IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this same result occurred to two patients. Reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases, Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute, neither mirth nor grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woful measures wan despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

While we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the ...

HARDY'S
In offering to the public at this time, HARDY'S GENUINE JAUNDICE BITTERS as a remedy for all Bilious complaints, so prevalent everywhere in the vernal season of the year, I do not present any new and untried article puffed up by persons who perhaps are not known to any one, but an old and tried article that has proved itself equal, if not superior, to any remedy of the kind, ever put into the market.

GENUINE
While I do not pretend to say they will cure all diseases human flesh is heir to, I do say they have been used for the last half century, and thoroughly tested by millions, and by those, too, of almost every nation on the globe, and in every variety of climate, and have proved themselves, beyond all question, unequaled by any medicine for all BILIOUS and JAUNDICE COMPLAINTS which are so common everywhere, and to prevent contracting infectious diseases peculiar to various climates.

JAUNDICE
These Bitters are not unpleasant to the taste. They are a moderate cathartic, cleanse the Stomach and Bowels of Phlegm and vitiated Bile, strongly invigorate the coats of the Stomach, promote digestion, and restore the loss of appetite.
They are invaluable for travelers, seafaring persons, and those exposed to sudden changes of weather in warm climates; to the dyspeptic, and persons of sedentary habits. To such, they afford the most speedy relief when taken according to directions.

BITTERS.
Put up in Papers at 25 cents per package, and in large Bottles at 75 cents each.

DOES OUR SWEDISH IMMIGRATION PAY.

In 1870 the State appropriated $4500 to try the experiment of Swedish Immigration. In 1871 $12,000 were appropriated in furtherance of the same object, and certain sums paid out by the Land Agent for felling trees, &c., were reimbursed to him. The present legislature is now asked for a further sum in aid of this enterprise, and the plain question which members of the legislature and the citizens of the State should ask themselves is, "Does Swedish immigration pay?"

What has been accomplished thus far? Briefly this.

One thousand Swedes, bringing with them $40,000 cash, have paid their own way to our State and are settled among us. Eighty houses and twenty-five miles of road have been built; twenty thousand acres of land settled; two thousand acres of trees felled; five thousand bushels of potatoes and three thousand bushels of grain harvested.

Does this pay for the outlay?

As a matter of business, as a matter of mere dollars and cents, we believe it does.

First, it pays in cash. The Swedes have brought $40,000 in hard money with them into Maine. This money was earned, produced outside our State; is so much direct addition to our capital; and largely exceeds the entire sum expended by Maine in aid of this movement.

Second, it pays in the enhanced value it has given to real estate in Aroostook County. Six farms adjoining New Sweden, that had been abandoned by Americans, have been sold to the Swedes for good prices. Several large farms in the vicinity have been sold to the Swedes for prices ranging from $1000 to $2000; and much of the land in the neighborhood of the Swedish settlement has doubled in value since the arrival of the first colonists eighteen months ago.

Third it pays as an advertisement of Maine. Flattering notices of the Swedish Colony, and of the vigor displayed by our State in attracting and founding it, have frequently appeared in the principal newspapers of the United States, Canada and Sweden. Maine to-day is exciting interest, no longer as a good place to emigrate from, but as a good State to immigrate to. Our soil, forests, water-power and quarries are challenging attention everywhere. Capital and labor are moving into Maine. Our own young men are remaining at home. "Cause immigration to flow into a State and you stop emigration flowing out of it" is a truism which is being proved anew amongst us.

The "Report of the Land Agent of Maine for 1871," just published, contains the following significant statistics:

Year.	Lands contracted to Actual Settlers, other than Swedes.	Lands contracted to Swedish Immigrants.
1868	11,157 32
1869	11,139 27
1870	10,811 76	3,400 00
1871	33,472 60	10,160 00

From this we see that the immigration of Americans to our unsettled domain was three times as large in 1871 as in any previous year; while if we add the Swedish immigration to our town, we find that the amount of wild lands of Maine settled in 1871 is nearly four times as great as in any year before.—The three-fold American immigration of 1871 is the direct result of the free advertisement of our public lands given them by the Swedish enterprise.

Fourth. It pays in actual labor received on State roads. A very large portion of the appropriations are expended in supplying the colonists with seeds, tools and provisions, which are absolutely necessary till they get their first crop. These supplies are not given away, but sold to the colonists at fair prices and payment taken in labor at the rate of $1 a day on State highways. These highways open up our forest domain, induce immigrants, Americans, as well as Swedes, to become settlers, and these settlers turn an unproductive wilderness into a tax-paying area. The increased taxes which in a few years will flow back into our Treasury, will compensate us for our present outlay, many times over.

Fifth. It pays in the acquisition of the immigrants themselves. One thousand new citizens have been added to the productive energies of Maine. One half of these, or five hundred, are men. According to the estimates of our best economists, these are worth $1000 each, or in the aggregate $500,000 to the State. And all this is but the seed of the future.—When our colony at New Sweden is once firmly rooted in the soil of Maine, it will continually attract immigrants from Sweden without further expense to the State. At the next census, in 1880, we expect to see 10,000 Swedes among the population of Maine, worth to the State $5,000,000.

The West spends hundreds of thousands every year to encourage immigration. Our Recent dispatches state that the sum of $50,000 is included in the Ontario budget of this year for the same purpose. Maine has quietly prosecuted her own immigration enterprise with a success unhoped for at home, and unlooked for abroad. Most assuredly it pays. But it will not pay to take any backward step now.—[Portland Advertiser.

STATE NEWS.

The Bath Times says there is a native American organization in that city pledged to support one of the candidates for Mayor.

The Maine Farmer received a subscription from one of the Swedes at New Sweden and in the letter was a $2 treasury note and a lock of hair! The former it says it can put to good use, but hardly knows what to do with the latter.

The Ministerial Association of the Gardiner District of the Maine Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church was in session at Lewiston last week. The Association organized by the election of officers as follows: Rev. George Webber, D. D., President; Rev. C. J. Clark, Secretary; Rev. K. Atkinson and A. Hatch, Committee on exercises.

One thousand, three hundred and seventy-five cases of boots and shoes were shipped from Auburn last week, the most ever sent in one week. The shoe business of Auburn for the month of February foots up higher than for any proceeding month in the city's shoe history. The aggregate shipments for the month have been 5,165 cases. The prospect now is that the weekly shipments will touch 1500 cases before the spring's business is over.

There will be an attempt during the present session of Congress to reduce the number of officers in the Navy. Now there are [illegible] whose pay is about four millions of dollars.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL

English papers announce the death of Henry F. Chorley, a well-known musical celebrity of London.

Hon. Schuyler Crippen, ex-Judge of the Superior Court, died Friday night, aged 77 years.

The Pioneer Grant Club, the oldest club in the Union, has been reorganized in New Orleans with 190 members.

It is said that the Illinois Democratic Congressmen declare themselves unanimously in favor of Judge Davis for the Presidency.

Hon. James D. Robinson has been nominated by the Republicans of Bath for re-election to the office of Mayor.

Ex-Senator Buckalew is a prominent candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor in Pennsylvania.

Nelson Walker, a colored lawyer, was admitted to practice before the Supreme Court at Nashville, Tenn., on Friday.

Gen. Ladmirault threatens to resign the office of Governor of Paris, because the "Rappel," newspaper is permitted to re-appear.

Mr. Gibbons, Lord Mayor of London, has been made a Baronet, and the honor of Knighthood conferred upon Sheriffs Bennett and Trescott of that city.

The labors of the convention to frame a State Constitution for Utah closed Saturday. The convention is regarded as a farce by the Gentiles.

The Wisconsin Assembly tabled by a vote of 29 to 38, resolutions endorsing Sumner's one-term amendment to the federal constitution.

The Wisconsin Legislature proposes to amend the State Constitution by increasing the number of Supreme Court Judges from 3 to 5.

Harvey H. Byrne, late District Attorney of San Francisco, and many years a prominent lawyer in California, died on Friday. He was the first husband of Matilda Heron, the actress.

Prince de Joinville has been reinstated in rank as Admiral in the French Navy, and Duke D'Aumale in his military rank as General. The committee of the Assembly have reported in favor of restoring the property to the Orleans Princes.

Even the New York Tribune is compelled to say, speaking of the New Hampshire canvass, "Any chance that disaffection might have had for the Democracy has been destroyed by the baleful presence of a few speakers of the real old Copperhead kind."

Pomeroy's Democrat will have none of the "new departure," and "passiveism" is its particular abhorrence. It continues in the same old strain, eulogizing the slaveholders' rebellion and its leaders, recently proclaiming that Lee and Davis "never fought for anything but the purest liberty and the purest republic."

The "Cross Roads" Democracy in Kentucky must be on the decline. The Louisville Ledger, a paper established to oppose the "new departure" of Vallandigham, has given up the ghost, whereat Nasby, Deacon Pogram and others of like faith, refuse to be comforted.

Col. S. M. Johnson, who during Buchanan's Administration was a writer of editorials for the Washington Union, and who afterwards wrote for the Intelligencer, died suddenly Friday of heart disease. He was a lawyer by profession, and was at one time a member of the board for codifying the statutes.

The Executive Committee of the National Board of Trade is in Washington urging the adoption of the matters indorsed at the St. Louis Convention, and especially urging the establishment of a Department of Commerce with a Cabinet officer at its head.

The New Hampshire Political Manual, in classifying the votes for Governor, last year, alludes to the Labor Reformers, as "Assistant Democrats." There are just such men now, at Washington, and this is the best name that can be applied to them.

It is said that Gov. Gratz Brown of Missouri has the Presidency fever in a virulent form, and that he is actively at work to secure the first place on the ticket to be nominated at the Cincinnati Convention. He thinks the fight will be between himself and Trumbull, and he is not satisfied to be beaten by so recent a convert to the new faith.

No better evidence is needed to support the assertion that the Democratic party of to-day is one of mere negations than is afforded in the leading organs of that party in New York. The World, for instance, has strenuously advocated minority representation, but no sooner is the principle incorporated in the new charter of that city, than the World shifts about and denounces it as a scheme to promote "venal voting."

An analysis of the list of delegates present at the Missouri Republican State Convention on 22nd instant week shows that more than one-half of them acted with the Liberals in 1870, but they are no longer Liberals in the sense the word was then used, but are active, earnest Republicans, in entire harmony with the principles and purposes of the party, will not stop at no effort to kill passiveism and carry the State for the nominee of the Philadelphia Convention. So much for the Schurz-Brown defection.

A fierce contest is going on in New Brunswick in respect to the free school system instituted by the last Legislature. The law has been put into operation and has stirred up the bitterest opposition of the Catholic priests and their adherents, who are laboring for the repeal of the "Godless School bill." The St. John Freeman, a Catholic organ, has stated that Professor Agassiz had on a public occasion denounced the free schools of Boston as having a demoralizing effect upon the young and furnishing recruits for houses of ill-fame. The Boston papers, in the absence of Professor Agassiz, positively refute any such statement, knowing that he is an ardent friend of free education. Persons who were present on the occasion alluded to say that the Professor made no comparison between public and private schools, and made no remark that could be construed as unfriendly to the school system of Boston. The New Brunswick conflict discloses the real enemies of popular education and the causes that produce their hostility.

The Death Rate in Europe is nearly double what it is in the United States, averaging yearly one out of every forty-three inhabitants, while in this country it is only one for every eighty-one. Of the leading countries of Europe France leads in mortality, the average being one death to every thirty-two of the population, and England appears to be the most healthy, the deaths being one to every forty-six. The life tables for the United States show a much wider range, from Arkansas, where the annual deaths are one to every forty-nine, to Oregon, whose death rate is only one to every two hundred and nine.—The North-western States average the most healthy, and the Gulf States the most sickly. Next to these latter stand the New England States, in which the death rate averages one to every sixty-eight.

LATEST NEWS IN BRIEF.

A decree has been issued in Spain for the formation of 80 provincial battalions of infantry.

The corner stone of the new Chamber of Commerce at Chicago was laid on Friday afternoon.

A large assortment of blooded live stock and improved machinery has been collected at Chicago for shipment to Japan.

There were 31 fires in Brooklyn, N. Y., last month, involving a loss of about $45,000. Three persons were burned to death.

A quarter of a million dollars has been given to the Washington University of Missouri the past year. A medical school is to be added to the institution.

The Board of Aldermen of Portsmouth, N. H., have voted to exempt from taxation new manufactories of cotton, wool, wood or iron, which may locate there.

A grand ball was given at the German Embassy at St. Petersburg, Thursday night, which was attended by the Emperor and Archdukes, all wearing the German uniform.

At the New Jersey Methodist Conference, Friday, it was stated that $6,229 was expended in meeting the claims of "worn out preachers" last year.

A few days since a small trunk containing $7,075 in bonds and currency, disappeared from the house of Mrs. Freeman in Beach street, New York, who, as yet, has obtained no clue to its whereabouts.

Madame Parepa-Rosa has been engaged as principal solo vocalist for the Rhenish festival at Dusseldorf, next summer, and will leave for Europe about the first of May.

In consequence of the increase of rowdyism and drunken fights in Lynn, Mass., a constabulary force, to the number of twelve men, raided through the liquor shops Saturday with success.

A dispatch from Wickenburg, Arizona, says that the Apaches have attacked two trains between that place and Phœnix, and murdered Samuel Cullenber and Thomas Harris, only four miles from a military station.

A meeting of two thousand oil-men at Oil City, Pa., on Friday, resolved to favor the procurement of another outlet for the oil regions and to reduce the production of crude oil.

David Scott and Mitchell Charest, charged with the murders at Windsor Locks, Conn., were brought to that place Friday. They are of small stature and very youthful appearance.

THE EFFICIENCY OF THE SIGNAL SERVICE. An item of $61,000 for the Signal Service met with opposition from Gen. Farnsworth, in the House on Friday, but Mr. Dawes came to the rescue, and Mr. Coughlan of California related an instance of the utility of "Old Probabilities'" prognostications in his State. It was telegraphed that a storm was approaching, whereupon a citizen, who owned stock pastured on the low lands sent word to have them driven to higher ground. This was done, and the next morning there was eight feet of water where the stock had been feeding, the observations having thus saved one citizen from a loss of $30,000. Mr. Dawes narrated an instance showing the commercial value of the signal service reports. There were one day in the harbor of Milwaukee twenty sloops and one steamer ready to sail. The captain of one of these sloops, who read the weather dispatch, was so impressed by it that he called the other captains together, and after consultation they decided not to sail. The steamer sailed and was wrecked in a terrible storm, but the sloops remained safely in port. Mr. Cox of New York and Mr. Sargent of California also bore such eloquent testimony to the value of the weather reports that the opposition was withdrawn and the appropriation made.

To the Honorable, the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, next to be holden at Bangor, within and for the County of Penobscot, on the first Tuesday of April, next:
Respectfully represents Lizzie M. Prescott of Bangor, in the County of Penobscot, that she was married on the 4th day of September, A. D. 1869, at Bangor, aforesaid, to Rufus L. Prescott then of said Bangor; that since their intermarriage she has in all respects done her duty as a wife, but that said Prescott in the first place fraudulently deceived her into the marriage, that he lived with her only fifteen months, that during that time he was guilty of extreme cruelty to her, that he provided no means for her support, and that he then abandoned her entirely, and has never lived with her, provided for her support, or even seen her since, but has left this State and is now in parts unknown.
Wherefore she prays that a divorce may be granted from the bonds of matrimony between her and her said husband.
LIZZIE M. PRESCOTT.

WHAT WE NEED.

The awakening of public attention throughout the State during the past few years to the unequalled natural facilities of Maine for the development of manufacturing industries and the importance to Bangor of taking some practical measures for the employment of our exceptional advantages in this direction, have frequently been referred to by us with that earnestness which was due to a subject so pregnant with future possibilities of our community The advantages which we possess are [illegible] by all the benefits to accrue from the [illegible] of our neglected facilities for manufacturing are acknowledged in advance and the only [illegible] seems to be how we may go to work to accomplish what is generally desired In considering a feasible answer to this question we have been interested in the course taken by our sister city of Portland, and think that we may obtain, at least some valuable suggestions from the result of the labors of some of the foremost men of that city in their efforts to promote the development of this class of business in their community

From documents which have recently been made public we find that the agitation of this question of manufactures in Portland resulted in the appointment by the Chamber of Commerce, of [illegible] members as a Board of Manufactures to whom was referred the consideration of practical measures for the encouragement of this important branch of industry The Board [illegible] public sessions for some time past obtaining the views of the most influential and public-spirited citizens and [illegible] interchange of opinions has been set forth in a memorial to the City Government In this memorial, the Board [illegible] with the following statement —

To the question [illegible] very utmost of our labors is suggested, to wit What branch of general industry can be at the present time most judiciously advanced to a broader development in our midst the answer [illegible] the greater number of our citizens would undoubtedly be, in one word, Manufactures

The kind of manufactures especially adapted to the locality are then enumerated the range of industries being necessarily much narrower than that which [illegible] found accommodation here, on account of the lack of that ample amount of mechanical power which the Penobscot is ready to furnish us whenever we shall see fit to make use of it. But even within the limits of those industries requiring "comparatively small measures of mechanical power," our Portland friends find wide scope for the promise of investment of capital and the employment of intelligent labor, and Mr Wells, the indefatigable Secretary of the Board and the leading spirit of the enterprise, presents a schedule of the lighter avocations, of which he says —

Of the three thousand million dollars worth of manufactures more or less [illegible] out in this country in 1870 perhaps one third in value, belong to the category under consideration Vast as is the consumption it will go on increasing with unparalleled rapidity the population of the country is augmenting over a million a year [illegible] will now take four fold more [illegible] than ever before

Having presented the [illegible] of manufactures and suggested the class [illegible] calculated to flourish [illegible] the Board refer to the means [illegible] to attract the capital and business [illegible] necessary for the extensive and permanent establishment of those enterprises [illegible] the co-operation [illegible] has been asked and [illegible] the Board, the City Council has passed the following resolve remitting taxation

Resolved That any manufacturing enterprise established in this city at a date subsequent to the passage of this resolve shall be exempt from municipal taxation [illegible] whole capital invested [illegible] for ten years [illegible] establishment of such [illegible] such exemption shall [illegible] be adjudged for the public [illegible]

In addition to this the city has appropriated a sum to defray a share of the expense of the Board of Manufactures the principal outlay being provided for by private [illegible] and this committee has set itself earnestly at work in gaining all attainable information of local facilities for manufacturing [illegible] to secure the personal interest [illegible] of all citizens in enterprises, to present fully before the people at home and abroad in the papers and by circulars such information of the favoring conditions and [illegible] inducements, as will encourage [illegible] investment and attract capital [illegible] to do all that they may [illegible] advisable [illegible] in furtherance of [illegible] As one of the first expedients resorted to we have a circular letter [illegible] manufacturers and the Public [illegible] scattered broadcast over the country containing a lucid and comprehensive statement of the advantages offered for investment [illegible] in locating manufac[illegible]

Now, the conditions of Bangor and Portland with reference to this [illegible] identical and it does not [illegible] that the methods employed [illegible] adapted to our own case But here is the identity of a mutual desire to establish manufacturing and as we can add to facilities that [illegible] equal for the prosecution of [illegible] business which Portland finds [illegible] to her situation the superior advantages of a water power adequate for the running of all large factories, there is every reason that we should emulate at least the zeal and energy with which her people are moving in this matter This brings us again to the question of what we need, and we think the action of our neighbors should help us to answer it What we desire is concerted action Our people are generally interested in this subject many of them have the means of contributing to the success of a movement in this direction, but there is a want of opportunity for the full and free interchange of views and of such a distinct and practical appeal to the enterprise of our citizens as shall give to the energies and aspirations of the community the force of united action

We do not mean to ignore the important industries already established here by private enterprise and which are doing so much for the prosperity of the city nor the various manufacturing enterprises which are being organized by some of our energetic citizens These are heartily commended and it is to the men who have thus identified themselves with extensive undertakings of this character, that we shall look for valuable aid in forwarding a general effort for the development of manufactures In such a general movement, however, it is necessary that the public should have the amplest opportunities for discussing and understanding the merits of the projects advanced, that all skepticism and suspicion of individual schemes and unduly selfish motives may be disarmed, and that those who feel interested in utilizing the manufacturing sources of Bangor, whether they offer to contribute capital, brains or honest labor, may be brought to act in unison for the promotion of this purpose.

We have a large amount of capital here which wants a safe and profitable investment in home manufacturing, were the safety and the [illegible] satisfactorily demonstrated. Our facilities are unrivalled, if equalled, and foreign capital would come in abundance if properly [illegible] by a movement which should show that [illegible] meant "business." Experienced manufacturers can be induced to come here as they have been encouraged to locate elsewhere, and there are many such to-day who would respond to a judicious invitation. We must first do something ourselves and we [illegible] once in motion will move bravely on.

In the article we gave an elaborate the advantages offered here for the purposes referred to as we wish that those advantages should be thoroughly ascertained, considered and discussed by the citizens themselves. Such discussion cannot fail to be productive of good, and we call upon our most influential citizens, those to whom the community are accustomed to look for the initiative in matters of public concern, to take this important matter in hand at once, and institute some practical measures for the promotion of manufacturing industries in Bangor

The Boston Advertiser says "Some of our brilliant countrymen have been abroad ever since State sovereignty went down for ever at Appomattox Court-house. We hope they will stay and continue to enlighten the British public on American constitutional questions. One of them has just been gravely writing to the London Times. In reference to the northwestern boundary question, taking the ground that since that part of the country is in a territorial condition its sovereighty is under the control of the federal government as agent or trustee of all the States He quotes that Mr Calhoun on the Ashburton treaty, to show that the State of Maine had sovereign right over the territory ceded by that treaty and that she might have stopped the negotiation by refusing her assent. This sapient correspondent concludes his letter by saying 'In dealing "internationally" with the United States government it must be dealt with as an agent and not as a principal, for it is a federation of sovereign States and not a nation in the ordinary sense of the term '

The Dexter Gazette indulges in considerable [illegible] over the Brownville charter, interspersing its jollity with sundry sarcastic allusions to Bangor But what a sudden [illegible] there is when its peal of triumph ends with the following lugubrious [illegible]

Now that a charter has been obtained for the road, the next thing to be considered by its friends is the little item of funds, where with the same may be built We have not heard whence it is purposed to obtain them In the meantime, we shall try and keep our readers posted

A friend sends us a copy of the Fredericksburg (Virginia) Herald from which we clip the following loyal and patriotic editorial reference to Washington's Birthday —

To-day (Thursday) it will be remembered is the birthday of General George Washington which, previous to the late war, was in many sections of the country, observed as a holiday One century ago the father of his country was as familiar with Fredericksburg then as any of its citizens are now Many of his relatives are buried in the various cemeteries and grave-yards of the city, a few of which have tablets erected to their memories However dear the name of Washington may be to the people of Virginia, and how they are wont to pay him honor, other heroes have since appeared on the theatre of [illegible] divide their affections Lee, Jackson, Ewell and Johnston and the [illegible] of a second war for independence [illegible] as successful as the first yet their [illegible] are fresh in the memories of the people of a State that—like Washington—gave them birth These heroes too have passed away [illegible] long will they be honored and remembered as the champions of a cause, though lost, [illegible] in the affections of its admirers.

The State Tax The State tax for the [illegible] year as provided for by the recent Legislature amounts to $1,202,18[illegible] which includes the mill school tax The county taxes [illegible] for are as follows

Androscoggin	$30,000
Aroostook	14,000
Cumberland	50,000
Franklin	8,000
Hancock	10,000
Kennebec	32,000
Knox	11,500
Lincoln	9,000
Oxford	10,000
Penobscot	35,000
Piscataquis	6,000
Sagadahoc	10,000
Somerset	12,000
Waldo	12,700
Washington	15,000
York	35,000

The Reply to Earl Granville Secretary Fish presented at the cabinet meeting [illegible] afternoon the explanatory letter from [illegible] to Gen Schenck after the speech [illegible] to which exceptions had been taken This letter with other facts which [illegible] to the knowledge of the Administration has prompted a toning down of the original draft. The reply considerably exceeds in length Granville's communication [illegible] with some detail the argument [illegible] in the treaty of Washington and [illegible] history in support of the position of this government and [illegible] rights to present the claims for indirect damages The tone of the document however is friendly and pacific [illegible] meet the English objections with an [illegible] to submit the whole question in dispute [illegible] whether claims for indirect damages [illegible] part of the case to the tribunal at [illegible] This is believed to be the essential [illegible] of the reply and that upon which England will be likely to base its answer—either accepting, or declining the proposition [illegible] is expressed however, by those acquainted with the text of the document, that it will cause any outburst of excitement or indignation in England like that of a few weeks [illegible] Secretary Fish is understood to be the [illegible] of the reply, though it has received the full discussion and approval of the President and every member of the Cabinet. The reply was sent to New York and forwarded to London Friday night.

Result of the Arms Debate The Washington correspondent of the Worcester Spy, reviewing carefully the Senate debate on the sale of arms to the French agents, comes to the conclusion that 'nothing has been shown or indicated as likely to be shown even to suggest that any officer of the government was corruptly influenced to permit the sale of arms' The correspondent thinks that the fire of the disaffected Missouri policy Republican Senators has been drawn and their forces have been defined and that it clearly appears they do not carry Mr Sumner with them" He adds

The 'liberal' Missouri policy Republican movement has these Senatorial leaders Trumbull, Schurz and —— Tipton! That's all, here are no more and even these are not absolutely certain to hold out. The mountain labored for a mere mocking purpose, this so-called 'liberal party have done so

As far as I can judge here, amid the personal turmoil, misrepresentation and feeling, Grant's position is not affected one iota.'

The Chicago Relief Bill. The bill for the relief of Chicago, reported to the Senate Friday, is substantially that advocated by Senator Logan and the delegation from that city The only important amendment is that limiting the operation of the bill to buildings erected on sites which were actually burned over, the design being to prevent owners of previously vacant and unimproved lots within the burned district from availing themselves of its advantages. The success of the bill depends greatly on the action of the Democrats, who are doubtful whether to promote free trade by the passage of the bill, or dissension among the Republicans by defeating it.

Politics in Iowa. Intelligence from Iowa is to the effect that the Republican State Convention, which meets at Des Moines on the [illegible] instant to [illegible] delegates to Philadelphia, [illegible] delegation in favor of [illegible] President.— Particular care will be exercised by Mr. James F Wilson's friends to [illegible] delegation devoted to his interests in connection with the Vice Presidency, and [illegible] any opportunity which may arise. [illegible] questions [illegible] Iowa, that State having three additional members in the next Congress, and a recent letter from a member of the lower house states that there are now in that body eighty-three declared candidates for the next Congress.

The Democratic Muddle The Washington correspondent of the Boston Traveller says 'The Democratic members of Congress are [illegible] ignorant upon the question of what their party intends to do. They are in a Democratic muddle. An interviewer has ascertained that Dan Voorhees, Beck, Wm. R. Roberts, Jas. Brooks Judge Holman, Casserly, Mungen, Roosevelt, Patten, Slocum and Eldridge don't know anything about it Mr Kerr is impatient to know, Lawrence supposes he will know, Senator Stockton don't care to know, Trumbull would like to know, Thurman thinks he knows, but don't, Sam Randall is puzzled, and Fernando Wood declares it a mystery It is presumed that they are all awaiting the action of Messrs Schurz and Sumner and John D Defrees, and that they will know in a week or two."

The Queen's Thanks Queen Victoria has written a letter to Prime Minister Gladstone saying that she is anxious to express publicly her own personal, very deep sense of the reception she and her dear children met on Tuesday from millions of her subjects.— Words are too weak for her to convey how deeply she was touched and gratified by the immense enthusiasm and affection of all from the highest to the lowest She returns her heartfelt thanks to the whole nation and declares that she herself, and all the members of her family will ever affectionately remember the day of thanksgiving

Valmazeda's Last Decree The Havana journals publish the following decree, issued by Captain General Valmazeda, and dated Santiago, Cuba, Feb 1 —

'A white male or female or free colored male or female who will bring in twenty five free or slave negroes, now roaming in the mountains, to headquarters, will receive a full pardon and $600 reward

A male or female slave who will bring in 25 negroes from the insurrectionary districts will receive his freedom If bringing in a number with arms, $17 will be paid for each negro so brought. Parties unable to bring the required number, but who bring in some, will receive pardon, and the value of their services will be taken into consideration in the matter of recompense "

SHOCKING TRAGEDY AT DIX ISLAND!

Two Quarrymen Quarrel!

ONE SHOOTS THE OTHER AND COMMITS SUICIDE!

JEALOUSY THE CAUSE!

A MURDERER NARROWLY ESCAPES LYNCHING!

ROCKLAND, Me., March 2.

A shocking tragedy occurred at Dix Island to-day, involving a murder and the subsequent suicide of the assailant. The parties to this sad affair were Dennis Little, a man about 45 years of age, and a youth of 18 or [illegible], named Wm. White, both of them workmen employed at the granite works and both belonging in Quincy, Mass. It is said that Little was jealous of young White and accused or suspected him of being in correspondence with his wife.

Shortly before the bell rang to resume work this afternoon, Little and White were going up the stairs at the house where the former boarded, when Little, being in advance, turned and fired one shot from a revolver at White, who fell to the foot of the staircase and immediately expired, the ball taking effect in or near the region of the heart.

Little then went to his own room at the Shamrock House and locked himself in.

The news of the terrible affair spread over the island like wildfire and the quarrymen with whom the murdered youth was a general favorite, rushed to the spot, threatening vengeance on the murderer. A dense crowd was soon collected about the house where the dead youth lay weltering in his gore, and a still larger assemblage gathered at the Shamrock House, crowding the entries and rooms, all eager to grasp Little - some in the honest endeavor to arrest and detain him until an officer arrived, others of his friends, seeking to protect him from violence, and many having the half-formed design to lynch him. Little fastened the door, and when an attempt was made to burst it, he said that he was armed and would fire if the crowd did not desist. He was called upon to surrender himself, but swore he would be the death of any man who attempted to take him. Soon after, while the crowd was debating the best means to obtain access to the murderer, a pistol shot was heard in his room. Renewed attempts were made to break in, but [illegible] apparent [illegible] strong as ever [illegible] that he could kill the first man that entered.

A long silence ensued the crowd excitedly discussing the matter [illegible] into the room, and [illegible] the attempt was about two [illegible] little appeared [illegible] take me now." He presented a ghastly appearance, which appalled [illegible] present. He had fired [illegible] running in his revolver into his own body, and in addition had [illegible] with an old knife, making a fearful gash [illegible] as well as his other wounds, [illegible] in a sickening profusion, completely saturating all his clothing, lying [illegible] upon the floor, and bespattering the walls and furniture. He was so weak that he was [illegible] to stand, and soon sank into a stupor.

His wounds cannot fail to be mortal, and he was reported just now [illegible] the messengers left the island to come [illegible] to this city for an officer and medical assistance. Both were obtained and started [illegible]. It is likely that neither will [illegible] all probability before [illegible] print, Dennis Little will [illegible] the blood of his victim on his hands.

It is understood that the Tammany [illegible] ing last night resulted in an agreement for a new election, in which an entirely new general committee is to be chosen.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

The representatives of the Irish societies last night formally decided to celebrate St. Patrick's Day by a parade Monday, March 18th. The City (Irish) regiment will accompany the procession. The Police Commissioners have offered to escort Mayor Hall to review the procession from the City Hall.

NEGRO MILITIA EXCLUDED—A RANTANKEROUS FENIAN.

At a meeting of the Irish societies a motion to invite the negro militia to perform escort duty on St. Patrick's day was voted down, and an ardent Fenian, fresh from Ireland, who counselled cutting the throats of strangemen, was ejected.

THE "TIMES" DEFIES [illegible].

The Times states that Mayor Hall has thirty-nine actions to bring against the proprietors and editors of that paper as soon as he is acquitted in the case now pending against him, and also that the Mayor offers to bet that he will have them in the State Prison in less than six weeks. The Times says they will find the Mayor considerable occupation for some time to come in a legal way.

STRIKERS' RIOT.

The laborers on a section of the Northport Railroad, Long Island, yesterday, demanded an advance of their wages, which being refused, a portion struck. Some twenty remained and were in the afternoon assaulted by the strikers and driven from their labor, several being badly bruised by sticks and stones. The contractor refused to pay the advance and has called on the authorities for protection, and the strikers say the work shall not proceed unless an advance is paid. Trouble is expected to-day.

CARDOZO'S CHARGE IN THE STOKES CASE.

Judge Cardozo to-day charged the jury in the Stokes case, ordering a verdict in accordance with the request of the District Attorney for the people, which legalizes the action of the Grand Jury, and upholds the indictment against Stokes.

VERDICT FOR THE PEOPLE ORDERED.

Judge Cardozo said that the issue raised in Stokes' case as to the constitution of the Grand Jury which indicted him for the murder of Fisk was to be one of law, and without permitting the question to go to the jury ordered a verdict to be entered for the people and against Stokes. If it were decided that the Grand Jury were illegally organized, he says, serious consequences might ensue, as respects the large number of criminals already under indictment.

A STAY GRANTED.

He would grant, however, a stay of proceedings against Stokes for twenty days, to allow counsel to bring the matter before appellate tribunals. Stokes' counsel excepted to all the findings of the court.

THE BANK STATEMENT

for the week shows an increase of specie, $443,000; of circulation, $21,700; a decrease of loans, $200,400; of legal tenders, 1,272,500; of deposits, $2,645,000. The above shows a loss of about $149,000 in the reserve.

MANHATTAN INS. CO.

The petition to have the Manhattan Fire Insurance Co. adjudicated bankrupt has been withdrawn by mutual consent. The receiver will distribute the assets, which will pay forty per cent of the company's debts.

SHOCKING BRUTALITY.

A case of shocking cruelty to a child has been developed in Jersey City. The child lived with a Methodist minister, who almost starved her to death, and turned her out of the house last night, without clothing or any protection from the cold. The child has also been terribly beaten and was covered with bruises. The case is to be investigated.

THE LEGALITY OF A COURT.

The Court of Appeals in this State is shortly expected to decide whether the Court of Special Sessions, which is a criminal court, is constituted according to law. The point raised is that the court is illegally organized on account of the Justices therefor being designated by the Mayor. If the unconstitutionality of the court is decided, a large number of prisoners will be released from jail.

UNDERGROUND RAILROAD.

At a meeting of citizens of the Reform Committee to-night, a resolution was passed endorsing the underground Central Railroad, as a means of rapid transit in the city, at an expense of about twenty millions.

THE INTERNATIONALS.

THE ALABAMA CONTROVERSY.

THE AMERICAN REPLY.

NEW YORK, March 2. The Herald's Washington despatch says the reply to Earl Granville's note quotes that portion of his note referring to consequential damages, and [illegible] case as presented at Geneva. All members of the Cabinet state that our Government will stand by the position assumed in the beginning by the President.

A FRIENDLY HINT.

The Times' despatch says that the reception of the answer to Granville's note will not lead to war. The answer is very suggestive, as it points out a way of escape to the British Government by which it can avoid its present unpleasant dilemma.

THE DISPUTED CLAIMS.

The reply states that we are perfectly willing to submit the question of jurisdiction to the Geneva tribunal itself for decision, and [illegible] it is assured that the United States is [illegible] that the international question [illegible] these claims should be forever [illegible] tribunal [illegible] to obtain [illegible] indirect damages.

[illegible] CENSURED BY THE LONDON PRESS.

The London press [illegible] with much surprise [illegible] the letter of Gladstone to the newspaper correspondent. The general opinion is that the act is one of questionable propriety, that it was neither necessary nor expedient, and was lowering his dignity to discuss [illegible] matters of state with a correspondent. SOUTH CAROLINA.

LABORERS ON A STRIKE.

NEW YORK, March 2. A Columbia, S. C., despatch states that the superintendent of the construction of the Postoffice there announced that ten hours would be a day's work on and after the first of March. The workmen struck, and called the superintendent's attention to the law of Congress, prescribing eight hours as a day's labor. Many of the workmen have left for their homes in the North, and the strike will cause considerable delay in the work.

NEW JERSEY.

PANIC IN A SCHOOL—SEVERAL CHILDREN INJURED.

NEW YORK, March 2. The escape of steam, through the carelessness of a janitor of a public school in Newark, yesterday afternoon, caused a fearful panic among the children, who jumped from windows, down stairs, etc. Several were bruised, but only one little girl was seriously injured.

CONNECTICUT.

FIRE.

FORTY-SECOND CONGRESS — SECOND SESSION.

WASHINGTON, March 2.

SENATE.

Mr. Ferry of Michigan presented a number of memorials from lumberman in the northwest, setting forth their reasons why the Chicago relief bill ought not to pass.

Mr. Logan read a letter in favor of its passage.

Messrs. Windom and Ferry presented memorials for a modification of the homestead laws.

Mr. Casserly presented a petition of the leading bankers and merchants of San Francisco for the reform of the civil service.

Mr. Pratt called up the bill to release to Indiana the lands known as the "Bad lands of Bear Lake" in Newton county, Indiana, and addressed the Senate upon it at length.

Mr. Bayard moved to take up the resolution asking for copies of the instructions given to the District Attorney of New York relative to the prosecution of merchants.

Mr. Conkling said that the instructions were fully published in the newspapers and there was no need to pass the resolution hurriedly and thought it would be better to wait until others could express their views of the resolution and of Bayard's motives in offering it.

Mr. Bayard replied that if he had based his speech on mere newspaper items Mr. Conkling would be the first to call him to order.—Allusion to his motives he thought ungracious and necessarily ignorant, as Mr. Conkling had no means of ascertaining them except from his public remarks yesterday. Besides, judging from Mr. Conkling's action in reference to the organization of the retrenchment committee and its investigations, he feared the Senator from New York could hardly understand his (Bayard's) motives.—He did intend to comment on the conduct of the officer who had given the instructions, but wished to base his comments on authentic information, and he had asked for it in the usual and only proper way.

Mr. Trumbull moved to adjourn, which was carried,—yeas 22, nays 21.

HOUSE.

The House met in Committee of the Whole for general debate with but 20 to 30 members present. A number of speeches were made on miscellaneous subjects.

MASSACHUSETTS.

LARGE FIRE AT SOUTH NATICK.

BOSTON, March 2. In South Natick this morning, a fire destroyed the building owned by J. B. Clark and occupied by him as a dry goods store, Wm. Edwards, clothing dealer, L. A. Kingsley, provision market, E. Henber, barber, and National Historical Society, whose collections of specimens was destroyed. The fire next communicated with the Elliot House, owned by Goin Bailey, likewise a total loss. Part of the furniture was saved. An adjoining building, owned by Goin Bailey and occupied by Smith & Lewis, grocers, and the post-office, was also burned. A. R. Tuck lost his dwelling house, store and stable, two houses owned by Elliot Walker were burned, and the engine house badly damaged. Total loss estimated $60,000.

SUPPOSED SUICIDE.

The body of Abraham Reed was found yesterday in an unoccupied house in Cambridge with his throat cut—supposed suicide.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

SPRINGFIELD, March 3. Charles Clark, an old resident of Hinsdale, Mass., was run over and killed by the cars near that place last evening while walking on the track.

MISSOURI.

FIRE—THE LEGISLATURE.

ST. LOUIS, March 2. The Phoenix Hotel at Salisbury, Mo., was burned Monday night. Loss $14,000.

The bill to create a Board of Railroad Commissioners was defeated in the Senate yesterday.

The Senate has passed a bill for the issue of twenty years' registered coupon six per cent. bonds redeemable after five years at the pleasure of the State, wherewith to pay the State indebtedness excepting the bonds of the Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad.

KENTUCKY.

STEAMBOAT DISASTER—SEVERAL LIVES LOST.

LOUISVILLE, March 2. The Green River packet, Falls City, was run into by the steamer Garrett at the mouth of the old canal at midnight last night and sunk. She struck amidships and sunk to the boiler deck. As she went down the stove in the texas capsized, setting fire to the boat and burning all the upper works. The passengers had time only to escape in their night clothing. She had a valuable cargo which is a total loss. Two negro deck hands are missing. The boat is a total loss.

FROM THE PLAINS.

THE RAILROAD.

OMAHA, March 2. The Union Pacific Railroad trains are now running on time.

SALT LAKE CITY, March 2. Trains are running irregularly owing to the snow.

OMAHA, 3. A train on the Union Pacific Railroad is reported stuck in the snow between Sherman and Red Buttes stations, one at Buck Creek and another at Medicine Bow.

PENNSYLVANIA.

LARGE FIRE AT SCRANTON—LOSS $70,000.

SCRANTON, Pa., March 2. Shortly after midnight a fire broke out in Hyde Park (Scranton), destroying Odd Fellows' Hall, Graeber's Hotel, Park Hotel and five other buildings.

There is no water for extinguishing fires in this part of the city, and the entire street was endangered. Loss $70,000. Very limited insurance.

LOUISIANA.

PINCHBECK FREES HIS MIND.

NEW ORLEANS, March 1. When the Senate adjourned last night, Lieut. Gov. Pinchbeck being called upon for a speech, said:

Gentlemen,—I thank you for your courtesy in requesting me to address you, but regret that the implied compliment to me cannot with any justice or honesty be returned.—This is the worst legislature, in my opinion, that ever assembled, and none can feel more rejoiced than I at the knowledge that its session had to terminate finally. If the government cannot be carried on without scenes which have been enacted in the House of Representatives I reiterate what I said this morning that the sooner the Republican party goes down the better.

FROM THE PACIFIC COAST.

THE MARIPOSA ESTATE.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 1. Judge Sawyer, of the Circuit Court, to-day confirmed the trust sale of the Mariposa estate.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3. The California Assembly passed a bill giving Sheriff Jackson $5000 for his fine and expenses when convicted in the Federal court of collecting the Chinese mining tax contrary to the amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

Thomas C. Robinson has sued Alvinzo Haywood for a half interest in the Amador & Badger gold mines, valued at $3,000,000, which he claims was obtained from him by fraud.

The weather continues warm and showery. Wheat is beginning to lodge in some localities, but the crop in the State is greater by fifty per cent. than in any previous year.

BUTCHERY BY INDIANS.

Advices from Arizona show that the massacre at Martinez station was committed by Indians, who pretended to be friendly, and cut the occupants to pieces with knives. It is believed that they came from the Dole Creek reservation.

THE WEATHER.

WAR DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF THE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER, WASHINGTON, March 3—7 P. M.

Probabilities.

The barometer will probably continue rising for a short time over the eastern Atlantic States, followed by a falling barometer and winds backing to the West and South, with increased cloudiness during the night, and threatening weather on Monday. Southwest to southeasterly winds, with increased cloudiness, for the Middle States to-night, with occasional light rain and snow; southeasterly to southwesterly winds and cloudy weather for the South Atlantic States. A rising barometer and westerly winds will prevail on Monday over the Gulf States, with pleasant weather and [illegible] over the South Atlantic States during the day; Northwest winds with clearing weather, extend from the Upper Mississippi valley during the night, and possibly to New York and New Jersey by Monday evening. Dangerous winds are not anticipated for the Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

IOWA.

In trying to [illegible] the road he and his team were precipitated over an embankment 70 feet [illegible] so as to be unable to [illegible]. When found yesterday [illegible], he was alive, but died two hours afterwards.

THE MISSOURI BRIDGE.

The temporary bridge across the Missouri River at this point will be abandoned Monday, as it is expected that the permanent Union Pacific Railroad bridge will be ready by that time.

FOREIGN NEWS.

GREAT BRITAIN.

REPUBLICAN MEETING BROKEN UP—ROYALISTS ATTACK THE BUILDING—THE ORATOR OBLIGED TO SEEK SAFETY IN FLIGHT.

LONDON, March 2. There was considerable excitement at Kingston, Surrey county, last night, over the sudden termination of a Republican meeting which was being held in that town. While Odger, member of Parliament, was addressing the assemblage, a party of Royalists attacked the building wherein the people had congregated, broke the windows and dispersed the meeting. The Royalists were particularly threatening in their demonstrations towards Odger, who was compelled to scale the wall and seek safety in flight.

THE GENEVA ARBITRATION—IMPORTANT STATEMENT.

LONDON, March 3. [N. Y. World special.] There is the best reason to believe that the British Government are prepared to consent to allow the arbitration of the Alabama claims to proceed under agreement that in no event shall the sum awarded for damages exceed a certain stipulated amount.

THE "OBSERVER,"

in an article on the Alabama claims, expresses the opinion that in case England should renounce the Treaty of Washington, the United States would take no immediate action in consequence, but would insist on the validity of the right hitherto claimed for American seamen to fish in Canadian waters, and on that point would meet no opposition from England.

THE REPLY

of the American Government to Lord Granville's note is expected to reach London a week from Tuesday.

MR. RUSSEL GURNEY,

of the American-British Mixed Commission, will leave New York on the 30th inst., for home, but intends to return to America in November, to complete the work of the Commission.

SOUTH AMERICA.

TROUBLE WITH THE UNITED STATES APPREHENDED.

NEW YORK, March 2. A Panama letter states that there is some anxiety in government circles of Colombia, under the demands of the claims for the payment of indemnities for the illegal capture of the steamer Montigo.

This feeling is increased owing to the reports that a large portion of the Pacific fleet, with the admiral in command, has been ordered to rendezvous at Panama. It is conjectured by many that these demands will be pressed by the United States with the ultimate intention of acquiring land in Colombia to construct an American canal across the isthmus.

GREECE.

THE KING'S PARENTS.

Athens, March 2. The King and Queen of Denmark, who have been visiting their son, King George of Greece, left to-day on their return to Copenhagen.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

—Everybody is anxious for rain.

—Street loafers were plenty and saucy yesterday.

—It is a remarkable fact that about all who have enjoyed (?) the sleighing during the past week have been completely slewed.

—Rev. A. Battles of this city preached in the Universalist Church in Augusta yesterday.

—The fine new building on the Colby University grounds at Waterville is all lathed and ready for the plasterers. It will be ready for occupancy soon after commencement.

—Rev. Dr. Pord preached at the Hammond-st. church yesterday a sermon which he informed his hearers he preached in the same place thirty years ago.

—Officer John. P. Pratt has been transferred from the night to the day force, and stationed on the Exchange st. beat, formerly occupied by officer McLaughlin.

—About ten o'clock last evening a very large and brilliant meteor was visible in the northwestern sky for several seconds. It was of a bright green color and left no trail in its deliberate flight.

—The Spring term of the Presque Isle Academy commences to-day, under the instruction of Miss Hattie C. Call of this city, who has successfully conducted the school for several terms past.

—Jerome Packard, who escaped from Belfast jail, where he was confined, charged with a dangerous assault on a Mr. Daley of Rockport, some time ago, has been captured and returned to his old quarters.

—Some one remarks that the ice-boulders on the margins of the river and stream would be appreciated to make "stone-wall" of in an equatorial climate, while here they are scarcely thought enough of to even sit down upon.

—The Penobscot Baptist Association will hold a semi-annual meeting at Houlton, on Wednesday and Thursday, 20th and 21st inst. Rev. F. T Hazlewood, pastor of the First Baptist church in this city, preaches the introductory sermon.

—The weather Saturday and yesterday was much warmer than on the few preceding days, and the sky was clouded most of the time, indicating, say the knowing, the approach of a storm. Clear sky last night, however.

A BUSY PLACE. A gentleman who came over the Grand Trunk Railway a few days since, informs us that there were three hundred cars at Island Pond when he came through. A snow blockade had caused them to be gathered there in such unusual number.

—The Church of the Messiah (Episcopal) at Dexter, which is to be dedicated this week, is heated by steam from the boiler of one of the mills, through pipes which are carried under ground a distance of 400 feet, four feet below the surface in a box packed with waste.

—Municipal election in this city, comes off a week from to-day, and warrants have been duly posted for the same. The Board of Aldermen will be in session at their rooms in City Hall on Thursday, Friday and Saturday next, from 10 o'clock A. M., till noon, and from 2 to 5 P. M., to correct the ward lists of voters.

FIRE IN UNION. The cabinet factory of Brown Brothers, at South Union, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday. The fire was first discovered in the attic about 10 o'clock A. M. A part of the machinery was saved. A large lot of black walnut and other lumber and finished work was destroyed. Loss estimated at $5000. No insurance.

—A Shirley correspondent of the Observer, says the hay famine is getting to be quite serious. Every lot of hay that was for sale in that town a few few weeks ago is now disposed of, and there are now several parties who are trying to purchase. The last price at Greenville was $40 per ton.

THE KELLOGG CONCERTS. Mr. Harlow found so many applicants for tickets at Orono Saturday that he was unable to get through the sale in season to go to Oldtown that day; but to-day he will go up on the noon train with plans of the Hall which he will exhibit at Folsom's store, so that the citizens of that place may have an opportunity to purchase reserved seats—many excellent ones being left unsold.

—The woolen manufacturing Company in Dexter, long known by the name of "Amos Abbott & Co.," some years since adopted the custom of dividing a certain percentage of their profits at the end of each year among the operatives in their employ, in proportion to the sums earned by each during the year. The usual division was made a short time since, and some of the hands received as high as $60.

DROWNED. We learn that late Thursday afternoon last, a little boy named Harris, about 5 years of age, broke through a thin place in the ice on the pond near the blacksmith shop at Brewer lower village, and was drowned. Efforts made to raise the body with grapples proved ineffectual that night, and on Friday morning a crew of some twenty men with two horses went to work to cut out the ice. Their labors were rewarded about 11 o'clock in the forenoon by the discovery of the body and it was taken out.

NEW TRAIN SIGNAL. We learn from the Lewiston Journal that Conductor Philbrook, who runs the through freight train from Portland to Waterville, has just had attached to his saloon car a compressed air whistle, by which to signal the men on the train. The machine is a simple air pump attached to a magazine, in which a high pressure of air is maintained, by which an ordinary steam whistle is made to signal as he desires. The machine is the invention of Dr. Hill of Augusta, and if it answers the expectations of the company will be very valuable aid in running freight trains, where signal ropes cannot be used.

QUINTETTE CLUB CONCERT. That well known and favorite organization, the Mendelssohn Quintette Club of Boston, will give a concert in Norombega Hall on Tuesday evening, 19th, on which occasion they will be assisted by several distinguished soloists, yet to be announced. Nothing need be said here of the talent and merits of the Club, as their fame is so wide-spread that the [illegible]

O. of G. T. Eagle Engine Co. of this city will attend the ball at Oldtown by special invitation and will be accompanied by many of their friends. Free return tickets will be issued to all attending over the E. & N. A. Railway.

BUSINESS ON THE MAINE CENTRAL. During the year 1871, the Maine Central Railroad Company carried on their trains 584,507 passengers, receiving for fares $696,913.68. The amount of freight transported was 314,902 tons, the receipts for which were $795,921.71. The total number of passengers to and from this city over this road during the year 1871, was 55,421; tons of freight transported to and from this city, 30,058, of which 6,339 were between here and Boston, 2,015 between here and Portland, 5,887 between here and Danville Junction, 1,510 between here and Newport, and 1,662 between here and Dexter.

PATENTS. Issued to Maine inventors, for the week ending Feb. 27th, 1872, and each bearing that date. Reported for the Whig & Courier by Wm. F. Seavey, Solicitor of Patents, Bangor:—

No. 123,997, S. L. Jones, Dennysville, Washing Machine.

No. 124,044, J. W. Farwell, Lewiston, Cloth Doubling and Folding Machine.
No. 124,094, A. R. Spaulding, Clinton, Metallic Counter.

Whole number of Patents issued for the week, 220, together with 7 Re-issues, 5 Extensions, 6 Designs, and 14 Trade-marks.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT. Our correspondent writes that Mr. James Thompson of Burlington was seriously and probably fatally injured on Friday by being run over by a sled heavily loaded with hay. He was standing in front by his team, and as it started he slipped and fell before one runner, which passed over him, crushing him fearfully. His son Vinal was near by at the time and without other assistance lifted his father on top of the load of hay and held him there until arriving at his home, a distance of a mile and half, when he carried him into the house unaided. Mr. Thompson had been lumbering this winter and had taken his teams out of the woods the day before the accident.

FIRE AT MOOSEHORN. A gentleman who has just returned from Moosehead lake, informs us that the house and barn of Mr. Ruel Thomas, at "Moosehorn," some nine miles this side of the lake were destroyed by fire on Sunday last week. The fire started in the barn, probably from a spark blown from the house chimney, and had made such headway that only a little furniture and a few household goods were saved from the house before it was destroyed. The loss was probably from $500 to $600, and as the buildings comprised about the whole of Mr. Thomas' property, it falls heavily upon him and the large family supported by his labor. On hearing of the disaster, a party of lumbermen coming out of the woods generously made up a handsome purse for the destitute family.

THE BENEFIT OF MELTING SNOW. About half past seven o'clock last evening a young man named Page was passing along Third street when he discovered fire on the roof of the ell of Mr. John Osborn's house, and immediately alarmed the inmates. Owing to the long-continued drouth, Mr. Osborn's cistern had been empty for some time, but fortunately on Saturday a large amount of snow had been melted to furnish water for washing purposes, and a few buckets full of this water put out the flames, which were making rapid headway and had already burned a hole through the roof. The fire was some six feet from the chimney, and probably originated from a spark falling on the dry shingles. It was a narrow escape from a conflagration, which, had that snow not been melted, would undoubtedly have ensued.

RESOLUTIONS. At a meeting of Floral Lodge, I. O. of G. T., of this city, of which the late J. W. Hathaway, esq., (whose recent sudden death in New York we have noted in these columns,) was a member, the following preamble and resolution were introduced and unanimously adopted:—

Whereas, Our worthy brother Mr. J. W. Hathaway has left us at the call of Heavenly Father, in the vigor of manhood and while engaged in the active duties of life; therefore—

Resolved, That while we mourn the loss of our deceased brother, we will cherish the memory of his example, and strive to be influenced thereby to attain to a higher state of usefulness in the cause of Temperance, Virtue and Humanity, in which our brother was a faithful labrer; and may the Infinite Father's tenderness and love abide with the sorrowing and bring to their wounded spirits that peace which He alone can give.

MINERAL PAINT. We have recently examined some specimens of mineral paint found on the farm of Mr. Daniel Spooner, East Sangerville. Its original color is a dark ochre yellow, and by burning it becomes a deep mahogany red—both very pleasing colors. Mr. Spooner got out about ten tons of this paint during the past year, and ground it in a mill set upon his place. Messrs. Blood & Rowe, his agents in this city, sold about two tons of the paint last season, and say that it gave good satisfaction. It works well for staining and graining, and when mixed like other paints has a heavy body and makes a hard smooth surface, standing well exposure to the weather. The buildings on the Bangor and Piscataquis Railroad are painted with it. Mr. Spooner is taking measures for an extensive introduction of this valuable deposit.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM FIRE. Early yesterday morning a lady residing on the East side, went into the room of her mother (who was sick and unable to leave her bed) with a kerosene lamp, which she attempted to place on a mantel, over a hot air-tight stove. Her mother speaking suddenly, startled her, and she dropped the lamp, which, striking on the stove, broke into a thousand pieces. The oil ignited with a flash like gunpowder, and flew over the floor in every direction, covering an area of several yards with fierce flames. Fortunately none of the fiery stuff fell on the lady, as if it had she must inevitably have been seriously, if not fatally burned, being clad only in cotton night-clothing. Her screams brought her husband to the room, and he was providentially able to smother and extinguish the fire before any great damage was done.

MUSICAL CONVENTION. The Musical Convention, held under the direction of Mr. Torrens at Dover last week, brief mention of which has already been made in these columns, is reported to have been a complete success in every particular. The concert Friday evening was attended by a large audience and gave great satisfaction. Quite a number of musical people in this city were in attendance, among them some of our best vocalists, who participated in the concert and were warmly received. Our correspondent writes that "Mr. Torrens as conductor achieved another triumph, and added many to his already extensive list of friends by the faultless manner in which he discharged his difficult duties." We notice that the Grand Provincial Musical Convention to be held at the Institute in St. John [illegible]

[illegible] under his instruction in this city [illegible] will attend the Convention, and will meet to-night to settle preliminaries.

FIRE RECORDS. Through the courtesy of Capt. E. How, Chief Engineer of the Bangor Fire Department, we are enabled to present the following statistics from his forthcoming report, in advance of publication. During the year ended March 1st, there were 23 fires in this city and 2 in Brewer, and besides these there were 19 general alarms at which the department turned out and 8 partial or street alarms, when the bells were not rung. This gives a total during the year of 25 fires and 27 alarms, on all of which, with one or two exceptions, the department turned out for service—an average of once a week during the year. During the year ended March 1st, 1871, there were 29 fires in the city, 2 in Brewer, 1 in Hampden and 1 in Carmel, which the department turned out to attend, besides 8 alarms—a total of 41.

The amount of losses during the year just past, was $22,000, of which $19,460 was covered by insurance, leaving total loss above insurance of only $2,540. This is a better record than on the previous year, when the losses amounted to $45,650 and the insurance to $22,350, leaving a loss above insurance of $3,300. The difference in the total losses, in favor of the last year, is $23,650, which may be attributed to the increased efficiency of the Fire Department and a better system of alarms. At present the Department has three steamers, "Union No. 1" and "Victory No. 2," built by Johnson of Portland, and "Liberty No. 4," built at the Amoskeag works, Manchester, N. H.; two hand engines, "Eagle No. 3," and "Tiger No. 6," (the latter a reserve machine, not in use) built by Button; a hose carriage run by Union Hose Co. No. 1; and a hook and ladder carriage fully equipped, run by Champion H. & L. Co. No. 2. Eagle Engine Company has 50 men, Union Hose Co. 30 men, and Champion H. & L. Co., 25 men; the steamers having a compliment of engineers, firemen and drivers. The apparatus is all in excellent order and the department generally in a high state of efficiency.

The age of railroads and the telegraph give rise to fast living, and increases the desire for making rapid fortunes, some wishing to out strip, and others to be at least equal to their neighbors. In order to keep up with this eager and unequal contest, the brain is taxed to its utmost power, while humanity is rendered an easy prey to disease. The Heart, Liver, Stomach, Lungs, or Nervous System becomes afflicted, and sickness, in the form of Heart Disease, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, Consumption, Paralysis or Mania, is the result. The use of Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites will enable the mind to sustain a greater strain unfettered by conflicting thoughts and unwearied by continued study. It imparts power of concentration. What before seemed difficult of solution, becomes comparatively easy, and the body is physically stronger under its use.

The Cause and Cure of Consumption

The primary cause of Consumption is derangement of the digestive organs. This derangement produces deficient nutrition and assimilation. By assimilation I mean that process by which the nutriment of the food is converted into blood, and thence into the solids of the body. Persons with digestion thus impaired, having the slightest predisposition to pulmonary disease, or if they take cold, will be very liable to have Consumption of the Lungs in some of its forms; and I hold that it will be impossible to cure any case of Consumption without first restoring a good digestion and healthy assimilation. The very first thing to be done is to cleanse the stomach and bowels from all diseased mucus and slime which is clogging these organs so that they cannot perform their functions, and then rouse up and restore the liver to a healthy action. For this purpose, the surest and best remedy is Schenck's Mandrake Pills. These Pills cleanse the stomach and bowels of all the dead and morbid slime that is causing disease and decay in the whole system. They will clear out the liver of all diseased bile that has accumulated there, and arouse it up to a new and healthy action, by which natural and healthy Bile is secreted.

The stomach, bowels and liver are thus cleansed by the use of Schenck's Mandrake Pills; but their remains in the stomach an excess of acid, the organ is torpid, and the appetite is poor, in the bowels, the lacteals are weak, and requiring strength and support. It is in a condition like this that Schenck's Seaweed Tonic proves to be the most valuable remedy ever discovered. It is alkaline, and its use will neutralize all excess of acid, making the stomach sweet and fresh; it will give permanent tone to this important organ, and create a good, hearty appetite, and prepare the system for the first process of a good digestion, and ultimately make good, healthy, living blood. After this preparatory treatment, what remains to cure most cases of consumption is the free and persevering use of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup. The Pulmonic Syrup nourishes the system, purifies the blood, and is readily absorbed into the circulation, and thence distributed to the diseased lungs. There it ripens all morbid matters, whether in the form of abscesses or tubercles, and then assists Nature to expel all the diseased matter in the form of free expectoration, when once it ripens. It is then, by the great healing and purifying properties of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, that all ulcers and cavities are healed up sound, and my patient is cured.

The essential thing to be done in curing Consumption is to get up a good appetite and a good digestion, so that the body will grow in flesh and get strong. If a person has diseased lungs, a cavity or abscess there, the cavity cannot heal, the matter cannot ripen, so long as the system is below par. What is necessary to cure is a new order of things, a good appetite, a good nutrition, the body to grow in flesh and get fat; then Nature is helped, the cavities will heal, the matter will ripen and be thrown off in large quantities, and the person regain health and strength. This is the true and only plan to cure Consumption, and if a person is very bad, if the lungs are not entirely destroyed, or even if one lung is entirely gone, if there is enough vitality left in the other to heal up, there is hope.

I have seen many persons cured with only one sound lung, live and enjoy life to a good old age. This is what Schenck's medicines will do to cure Consumption. They will clean out the stomach, sweeten and strengthen it, get up a good digestion, and give nature the assistance she needs to clear the system of all the disease that is in the lungs, whatever the form may be.

It is important that, while using Schenck's medicines care should be exercised not to take cold; keep in-doors in cool and damp weather; avoid night air, and take out-door exercise only in a genial and warm sunshine.

I wish it distinctly understood that when I recommend a patient to be careful in regard to taking cold while using my medicines, I do so for a special reason. A man who has but partially recovered from the effects of a bad cold is far more liable to a relapse than one who has been entirely cured, and it is precisely the same in regard to consumption. So long as the lungs are not perfectly healed, just so long is there imminent danger of a full return of the disease. Hence it is that I so strenuously caution pulmonary patients against exposing themselves to an atmosphere that is not genial and pleasant. Confirmed consumptives' lungs are a mass of sores, which the least change of atmosphere will inflame. The grand secret of my success with my medicines consists in my ability to subdue inflammation instead of provoking it, as many of the faculty do. An inflamed lung cannot with safety to the patient be exposed to the biting blasts of winter or the chilling winds of spring or autumn. It should be carefully shielded from all irritating influences. The utmost caution should be observed in this particular, as without it a cure under almost any circumstances is an impossibility.

The person should be kept in a wholesome and nutricious diet, and all the medicines continued until the body has restored to it the natural quantity of flesh and strength.

I was myself cured by this treatment of the worst kind of Consumption, and have lived to get fat and hearty these many years, with one lung mostly gone. I have cured thousands since, and very many have been cured by this treatment whom I have never seen.

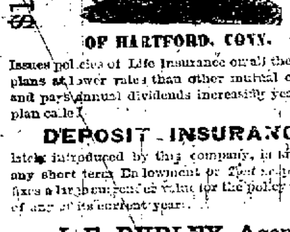

About the first of October I expect to take possession of my new building at the northeast corner of Sixth and Arch streets, where I shall be pleased to give advice to all who may require it.

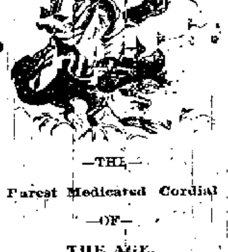

Full directions accompany all my remedies, so that a person in any part of the world can be readily cured by a strict observance of the same.

"THERE SHALL BE NO NIGHT THERE."

BY REBECCA M. LIBBEY.

There is a blessed clime
Unseen by mortal sight,
Beyond the realms of Time,
Where cometh no more night!
A peaceful happy land
Beyond life's stormy sea
Nearer whose shining strand
Each slow wave beareth me

A clime unknown to pain—
Where falls no bitter tear
Where linked shall be the chain
Death's hand hath severed here!
Nor moon nor stars are there
For God's celestial light
Gives endless brightness where
There cometh no more night

There is no sorrow there—
No weary night of woe
No night of dark despair
The burdened heart shall know
No waiting for the light
Of morning's cheerful ray
For in God's presence bright
Shines one eternal day

There [illegible]
No clouds [illegible]
Where skies are ever fair
And flowers unfolding bloom
For in that happy [illegible]

It is mentioned in the letter which accompanied the medals, that the gravity of the events of the past eighteen months in France, had caused the delay in this recognition of the gallant services of our sailors.

"SHUT THE DOOR JOHN." Many of the highest [illegible] in the lowest traits of the human character are often made known by very simple means. And very important principles in ethics natural philosophy and mechanics have been discovered by accidents, incidents and details which are common to domestic life, but who would have thought, in olden times of consulting with a four paneled door, a philosophic and metaphysical friend to [illegible] knowledge of the hidden mysteries and the general effects of the human mind?

During the last ten years in the winter season, according to our daily record, we have noticed the manner in which one thousand persons who call for work have opened, shut or not shut our store door. This you may say, is a futile and useless undertaking, but we entertain very different opinion. What are the facts, and what the deduction?

First, out of the 1,000 persons recorded, 355 opened the door and shut it after them carefully, when they came in and when they went out, without much noise.

Secondly, 228 opened it in a hurry and made an attempt to shut it, but did not, and merely pushed it to, when they went out.

Thirdly, 89 did not attempt to shut it at all, either on coming in or going out.

Fourthly, 96 left it open when they came in, but when reminded of the fact, made apology and shut it [illegible]

Fifthly, 132 opened it [illegible] then slammed it to violently, but [illegible] when they went out.

Sixthly, 30 came in with "how do you do, sir," [illegible] sir, and all these [illegible] of wiping their feet on the mat, but did not shut the door when they came in, nor when they went out.

REMARKS.—We have employed men out of the above classes, and during that time have had an opportunity of judging their merits, etc.

The first class, of 355, were those who knew their trade, and commenced and finished their work in a methodical manner, were quiet, had but little to say in their working hours, and were well approved of by those for whom they did the work. They were punctual to work and left nothing undone which they had been ordered to do. They did not complain about trifles, and in all respects they were reliable men, and were kind and obliging in their general conduct.—[Scientific American.

NEATNESS.—In its essence, and purely for its own sake neatness is found in few. Many a man is neat for appearance sake, there is an instinctive feeling that there is power in it. When a man consults a physician or a lawyer for the first time, or comes to rent a house, or borrow money he will come in his best dress, a lady will call in her carriage—A man who means business and honesty comes as he is, just as you will find him in his store, his shop his counting house. The most accomplished gamblers dress well, the most enterprising swindlers are faultlessly clothed, but countless multitudes are but whitewashed sepulchres. Too many "don't care, as long as it will not be seen." Washington Allston the great artist, the accomplished gentleman, suddenly left his friend standing at the door of a splendid Boston mansion as they were about entering for a party because he had just remembered that he had a hole in his stocking—It could not be seen or known but the very knowledge of its existence made him feel that he was less a man than he ought to be, gave him a feeling of inferiority.

As persons are less careless of personal cleanliness and tidy apparel they are infallibly and necessarily less of the angel, more of the animal more under the domination of passion less under the influence of principle. Said a poor servant girl, "I can't explain what change religion has made in me but I look more closely under the door mat, when I sweep than I used to." Intelligence culture elevation, are purity of body as well as purity of sense and sentiment.

Where you see a neat tidy, cleanly cheerful dwelling there you will find a joyous, loving happy family. But if filth and squalor and a lust and for the refining delicacies of life prevail in any household, there will be found in the moral character of the inmates that which is low degrading, unprincipled, vile and disgusting. Therefore as we grow in years we ought to watch eagerly against the neglect of cleanliness in person, and tidiness in dress.—[Hall's Journal of Health

It is believed that the advantages now presented at this Institution to students who wish to pursue a part of or complete course of study are unsurpassed by any of its class in the State. The Teachers are experienced and efficient and spare no pains to render the Instruction thorough in their respective departments.

The boarding Halls are heated throughout by steam [illegible] Hersey Hall [recently erected] and exclusively [illegible] ladies is provided with all modern improvements.

The several courses of study have been arranged with great care to meet the wants of all classes of students. The common English branches as well as the higher English and Classical receive careful attention.

Good Philosophical and Chemical Apparatus, together with a large Cabinet of minerals, enable the students in Natural Science to have the subjects discussed amply illustrated by experiments. A Normal Class under the instruction of the Principal is organized for the benefit of those desiring to teach.

Special facilities are afforded to students in Music, Drawing and Painting. Board, including fuel and lights is $3.50 per week. Tuition, for fourteen weeks ranges from $5.50 to $8.50. Good accommodations are provided for those desirous of self boarding.

[illegible] FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

Issue $13,500 per mile,

ON A FINISHED ROAD.

THE LEADING POINTS IN RELATION TO THESE BONDS ARE AS FOLLOWS

1st. The Stockholders have built a first-class road, and equipped it in a first-class manner.

2d They have built their road through one of the richest portions of the State, where all the old roads into Chicago are earning over $10,000 per mile per annum, and are paying large and regular dividends.

3d They have built the shortest road to the celebrated Block Coal Mines, whose products have a large and increasing market in Chicago, in the manufacture of iron, as well as for domestic uses

4th The road is done, well equipped, and doing a large business

5th The portion of the road opened for business this year earned more than 50 per cent net above its interest liabilities

6th The amount of the mortgage is very moderate, being only about $13 500 per mile

7th. While Railroad Bonds may be plenty, those upon finished paying lines, and for so small a sum, are seldom in the market

8th That as the amount remaining unsold is less than $1 000 000 parties who want them should make immediate application

The Bonds are for $1 000 each, have forty years to run, and bear interest at the rate of 7 per cent per annum payable on the first of April and October, both principal and interest being payable in gold in New York

We do not hesitate to recommend these Bonds as unusually safe. They are attended with none of the uncertainties of projected enterprises, and the prompt payment of the interest, and the final payment of the principal, are as certain as any future financial event can well be. We are selling them daily to the most careful investors

Front view, M teeth, showing sizes and set of two points to cut in it.

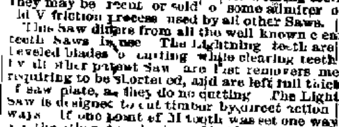

NOT ONE FAILED IN 20,000

The New Year finds the LIGHTNING SAWS universally acknowledged to lead the American market. No manufacturer of saws has dared to question or publicly test at the American Institute or elsewhere, the matter of superiority of the latest improved Saws. The $500 challenge for expenses of public contest is engraved on each saw. All teeth are cutters and simple as old V. All Saws warranted to Coil and Touch uninjured

The large increase of the business has compelled lease of No 30 Beekman st., and arrangements for the manufacture of five thousand LIGHTNING cross-cuts per month, and hope to be able to fill all orders promptly

The supply has been unequal to the demand for the LIGHTNING BUCK SAW, but hereafter I will endeavor to keep a stock on hand. The sale of several thousand dozen of the above mentioned saws causes belief that they are the best blades in the market. All Lightning Saws are indelibly etched with my name the Cross-Cuts with directions for filing using, &c

Each Lightning Saw will coil and touch ends uninjured. Not one in twenty thousand has proved imperfect, so thorough is the inspection of these regular goods, but, for the benefit of such unskilled men as cannot set and use a thin Saw, a gauge heavier (than regular 15) will be inserted to order since enlargement of dust space, one year ago, no complaint of clogging has been received. The Lightning Saws are equally adapted for large and small timber soft or hard wood, but soft timber requires saws to be set wider. Lightning Saws are all set and sharpened ready for use when sent out, are two gauge thinner on back

THE GREATEST INCLUDES THE LESS.

No extra steel and durability as contrasted with old V outlined on M tooth. After wearing teeth out they may be recut or sold to some admirer of the old V friction process used by all other Saws.

This Saw differs from all the well known cleaning-teeth Saws in use. The Lightning teeth are also beveled blades to cutting while clearing teeth used in all other patent Saws are first removers merely, requiring to be shortened, and are left full thickness of saw plate, as they do no cutting. The Lightning Saw is designed to cut timber by direct action both ways. If one point of M tooth was set one way and the other the other it would ride and lift out the [illegible] Most of the large Hardware Jobbing Houses in America now handle my goods. BEWARE of worthless infringements, for which I am seeking legal redress under Patents Trade Mark, and Copyright.

NEW YORK, AM INSTITUTE FAIR BUILDING, Nov 4, 1871

E M BOYNTON 78 Beekman st New-York—Sir This certifies that I saw the Lightning Cross-Cut Saw worked by hand, by two men, Nov 2 at the Fair. Said men and saw cut off a sound 8x8 inch chestnut log in 3½ seconds, and 16 cuts of same, continuously in two minutes and 18 seconds or at a rate of a cord of wood in less than nine minutes. I am satisfied that for all purposes of cross cutting large and small timber your cross-cuts are and will be ahead. I have no rival in speed in case, and in simplicity

I believe their universal use would save a vast amount of money and time and lighten the toil of millions. J W BLAKE, Superintendent, and Engineer American Institute

N B These extreme tests are quoted merely to prove what should be obvious—that direct cutting is better than the old V friction process used by all other saws

Honest hardware men will procure the genuine for their customers even if they are overstocked with inferior goods, and where they do not keep them, Agents are wanted. A six foot Cross Cut and Buck Saw sent on receipt of $6. Express will cost from 40 cents to $1 to places this side of the Mississippi River by special contract

N B Millions of Axes are used for cutting wood. A Lightning Cross-Cut Saw, either for one man or for two, will cut five times as fast as an axe! why not try them? Also Lightning Ice Saws. 4 to 6 feet long suitable for general use

See that the name and warrant are on each saw

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS

For Inventions Trade Marks or Designs

No 76 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years continues to secure patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats Specifications, Assignments and all papers for Patents executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of inventions and legal and other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS

I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse

CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents."

Mr R H EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

Valuable Water Power, Mills, Houses, Store &c., at Howland, Penobscot County, Me

The valuable property at the mouth of the Piscataquis River, County of Penobscot, Maine, consisting of a valuable Water Power, Mill Privilege, Mills, Houses, Store and Shops and about forty five acres of land adjoining (being the property formerly owned and occupied by the late Hon Wm. Miller) making one of the most desirable locations for manufacturing lumber, or any thing else in Maine. It is also a particularly desirable location for a large Tannery, there being large quantities of Hemlock bark in the immediate vicinity.

—ALSO—

About twenty three hundred acres of timber land, covered with pine, spruce, Hemlock, Cedar, &c all within four and one half miles of the Mills, will be sold with the above if desired.

The above property is thirty five miles above Bangor, on the Penobscot River, and in easy communication with the European and North American Rail Road

Parties wishing to examine will call on FRANK DAVIS, SAMUEL DAVIS, FRANK INGALLS, or JOHN HALEY, at Howland.

For price and terms or any other information regarding it, call on or address D. W. MILLER Attorney for the heirs of the late N J Miller, or N JONES MILLER, JR,

75,000 Acres

OF GOOD

Timber Land

For Sale at a Low Rate,

Situated on Moose River, in the town of Greig, Lewis County, New York

Said timber consisting of White Hemlock, Spruce, Pine and Hardwood. The subscribers own two large tanneries, located on the aforesaid tract, which will consume the hemlock bark, thus enabling the land and timber to be purchased at a comparatively cheap rate. The timber is excellent in quality in all particulars. The aforesaid tract of land is easy of access, being only from six to fifteen miles from both the Black River R R and Black River Canal, which lead direct to the Albany Market. The land is comparatively level, well watered and good for farming purposes. Moose River, which extends through the tract, is a large stream and empties into Black River, where the aforesaid Canal leads into Black River. At this point or junction of the rivers, is a fall of sixty (60) feet, over which the waters of both rivers flow, thus forming an unlimited water power, (we might say right in the Canal and at the Depot,) to which Moose River will carry the immense amount of timber from the aforesaid lands

Any parties desiring to manufacture lumber will do well to give this rare opportunity their attention. The land and timber can be purchased at a cheap rate or the timber alone permitted.

MISS SAWYER'S SALVE.

HERE you have a salve combining soothing and healing properties with no dangerous ingredient. A remedy at hand for the many pains and aches, wounds and bruises to which flesh is heir. Is more easily applied than many other remedies never producing a bad effect but always relieving pain however severe

It is prepared by Miss Sawyer, who has used it in her own extensive treatment of the sick for nearly twenty years with great success

The principal diseases for which this salve is recommended are Chilblains Rheumatism Piles Scrofula Old Ulcers Salt Rheum Sprains Burns, Fever Sores Felons Pimples Erysipelas Sore Eyes Barber's Itch Deafness Boils Ring worms, Corns Bites of Insects, Cancers, Toothache Earache, Sore Nipples Baldness, Swollen Breasts, Itch Scald Head Teething Chapped Hands, Scalds Cuts Bruises Croup Cracked Lips, and Sores on Children

It never fails to cure Rheumatism if properly applied. Rub it on well with the hand three times a day. In several cases it has cured palsied limbs. For Piles it has been discovered to be a sure remedy. Persons that have been afflicted for years have been relieved by a few applications. For Erysipelas it works wonders, allaying the inflammation and quieting the patient. For Chapped Hands it produces a cure immediately. Let those with Salt Rheum obtain this Salve, and apply it freely and they will find it invaluable. It is good in cases of Scrofula and Tumors. Cancers have been cured with it. The best Salve ever invented for Swollen Breast and Sore Nipples. No way injurious, but sure to afford relief. Sore or Weak Eyes—Rub it on the lids gently once or twice a day. Cures deafness by putting in the ears on a piece of cotton. For Felons this is superior to anything known. For Pimples this acts like a charm. For Burns and Scalds, apply the Salve at once and it gives immediate relief. For Old Sores apply once a day.

Not among the least of the invaluable properties of MISS SAWYER'S SALVE are its beneficial effects on the hair. Rubbed on the scalp in five or six different parts, it promotes the growth of the hair, prevents it turning gray, and on bald spots it produces a new growth of hair. No lady should be without this invaluable article as an indispensable cosmetic for the toilet. It eradicates dandruff and disease from the head and blotches and pimples from the face

From Mrs ELIZABETH COOMBS, Brunswick.

Brunswick April 4, 1867,

MISS SAWYER: I received your letter last evening and was very glad you concluded to let me take your Salve. I think I can do well with it, and it will be quite an accommodation to my husband, as he cannot get along without it. He has tried everything else and has never found anything that healed his leg as that Salve of yours and we have both found it to be all and even more than you recommend it to be. We have had it in the family five or six years, and have used it for every thing, and can truly say we have never found its equal. I used it for a weak back and it acts like a charm. Mr Coombs has had a Fever Sore on his leg for thirty years and would be a cripple to day if he had not found a remedy in your Salve. It keeps it healed and takes out the inflammation proud flesh and swelling and does for him all that he can ask. I can recommend it for a good many things that you have not for I use it for everything. I consider it invaluable in a family. If you can put this testimony together and it can be of any service to you you are welcome

Yours, &c, ELIZABETH COOMBS

Testimonial from Deacon Theodore B Perkins formerly of the well known house of Nason, Hamlin & Co, Augusta, Me after using one 35 cent bottle of Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam.

GLOUCESTER, Mass Dec 26 1871.

F W KINSMAN, Esq—My Dear Sir: Excessive business calls alone prevented my sooner acknowledging the receipt of your very valuable favor, and I am now glad to say that your Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam is the most efficacious preparation for coughs and colds that I have ever had in my [illegible]. At the time it was received I was suffering [illegible] with asthma, attended with a dry, hard cough, both of which left me immediately after taking the mixture. The latter has not returned. It has been several weeks.

We, the undersigned, having enjoyed for many years an intimate personal acquaintance with Deacon Theodore B Perkins, would certify that his case of asthma was as bad as any that has ever come under our notice, and that to our knowledge, on account of this illness he went to California where he passed about one year undergoing treatment for the disease

BOOTHBAY, Dec 20, 1871

Mr W F KINSMAN—Dear Sir: For the last 5 years I have been troubled with a cough, have spent one winter in Florida, taken about everything in the shape of patent medicines and doctors' prescriptions, and I can say that your Adamson's Botanic Balsam is the best thing I have found for a cough. I have been using it some three months and am about well.

Yours truly S B YOUNG

AUGUSTA, Jan 2d 1872

Mr KINSMAN: I have been troubled with Asthma attended with a Cough ever since I was six years of age. Have tried various remedies. Commenced using Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam some time in January, 1871, and it seemed to act like magic [illegible] me at once. I have had but little cough since and I think that it is the best remedy to be found for Asthma. I have since recommended it to quite a number and it has given good satisfaction
